100% Completion is an optional challenge for The Legend of Zelda series.

WIKIS

START A WIKI

In order to have a 100% completed file, it must contain all Heart Containers, upgrades, items, and collectibles. Unlike other gaming series like Metroid or some Super Mario games, The Legend of Zelda franchise generally does not acknowledge 100% completion with in-game rewards such as alternate endings, although some of the games have given rewards for various subtypes of completion.
